

2011 March To The Arch Circuit Award & High Point Winners

“It is time for us to stand and cheer for the doer, the achiever, the one who recognizes the challenge and does something about it.”

-Vince Lombardi

People stood! People accepted the challenge! And we thank each and every one that did! Having just completed the 6th March To The Arch we always wonder what can we do to make it bigger, better, more fun, more exciting....more something! And because of all the new faces, new supporters & especially those that return each year – the challenge was met!

Of course, we cannot finish without mentioning the ladies – though some were reluctant ladies – who provided the entertainment Friday evening. Brian Baldrige (Lady Shanequa) riding Up The Assets (Dirty Hooker) owned by Brittany Lofton, (Brian worked for Jeff Kirkbride Photography while at the show.) Coming in second & also best costume - Nathan Miller (Anita Greencard) riding Lil Bit Western (Immigration) also owned by Brittany Lofton – Nathan works for Doug Landon. (Did you see Nathan's nails? Jill Newcomb helped with Nathan's outfit & nails!) Third place was Doug Ross (Glamorous Gloria) riding One Cool Krymsun (Pink Cadillac) owned by Jonal & Andrea Uglem – Doug is an assistant with Briggs Show Horses. Fourth place was Shane Dowdy (Sandra Dee Dowdy) riding Blazing Hot Cookies (Greased Lighting) owned by Bill Cosentino. Coming in 5th and reserve best costume was Rusty Green (Roxie Green) riding Blazingmytroublesaway (Buttercup) owned by Rusty & Katie Green. Tying for 6th and 7th were Jason Gilliam (Big Pimpin Pink) riding Hes A Natural Zipper (Charlie Sheen) owned by Mallory Overberg & Jon Barry (Sherry Barryilicious) riding Mad About Moonlight (Fantasy In The Moonlight) owned by Karen Perkins.

At the beginning of the week a challenge was 'thrown' that if $5000 were raised Shane, Jon & Rusty would ride the ladies pleasure & thanks to the generous donation from Jill Newcomb & clients – all three men held true to the promise & it appears even had a good time! Several of the ladies have already said they are working on the 2012 outfits! Oh My!

It will be about 60 days before we can announce the actual donation amount to the Children's Hospital of St Louis, but rest assured – we will post the outstanding amount. In the previous five years more than nearly $200,000 has been raised because of each and every one of YOU!
