

2008 Indiana Youth Show

WOW. Amazing. Overwhelming. Over-the-top. You can fill in your own words here. No one could have predicted a near doubling of the entries in one year. We are so very appreciative of EVERYONE'S understanding with the long nights into late mornings & into the next day's show. A special thank you to all the judges who were on their feet for more hours than is normally possible. Extra thanks to Dr Mark Russell, Randy Alderson, Marty Jo Hays & Howard Rea that picked up extra judging assignments & kept on trucking with our madness!

We do understand that there are bugs to be worked out with the facility, but appreciate everyone's patience as they learn how to correct those. They were certainly willing to go above & beyond to try & fix the arena, parking & more. We are sure that Crossroads Arena will be a force to be reckoned with as they get the facility to full strength. We look forward to having the 2009 Youth Show there next year & for many years beyond.

We are already making changes to make the 2009 show better. Shorter nights, more parties, more prizes & more fun. Maybe even bigger! Yes, it can be done. We have had such positive feedback about the fresh baked cookies, Hoosier Daddy t-shirts, prizes & more. Look for more cookies next year too! Maybe even some great surprise news!! Hint, Hint – check back!

Congrats to Abby Knowlton on her win in the hotly contested International Egg & Spoon championships. Each year the competition gets tougher & tougher. We think people are practicing more & more. She was riding the current Youth World Champion Performance Halter Gelding during her win – an impressive team! Shout out to Jennifer Paul...she proved to be tough competition as she finished in the reserve position!

The all-around awards follow along with the numbers in each class.

Be sure to check out www.holmanphoto.com for candid, action shots & posed photos from the horse shows.

Thank you to our 2008 Sponsors- it would not be possible without you!
