

2009 March To The Arch

Every year when we finish with a March To The Arch show & sit down to list those that were instrumental in the success of the show, the lines on the paper get longer & longer & longer. And that – is amazing! This show is a dedication of drive, determination & passion. And we are discovering every year that many of you feel the same way.

We were a bit worried as we headed into the 2009 show that with the economy, the weather on the coast & the AQHA convention happening at the same time, that people might just stay home. Happily, they didn't. You came & you came in droves. Every stall on the grounds was sold, the entries were up & the quality was unlike any we have seen before. When you can swap out the top 5 or so in any class and still be happy with the placings that certainly attests to the excellence shown in the arena.

As we say our thanks – we must give acknowledge those that truly go above & beyond.

No list of thank you's could be compiled without a huge thank you to the AQHA judges for donating their time. Jeffrey Pait, Rhonda Replogle, Brendan & Cyndi Brown, Chad Evans, Mike Hawkins, Dean Bogart & Patti Robertson. Every year it is a pleasure to have the AQHA industry leaders call to judge this show. We know that you could have taken a 'paying' job someplace, but chose to work long hours & take some good-natured ribbing while digging out whatever pink attire they have in the closet to come to Lake Saint Louis. We thank you!

Assisting the judges were Konnie Brooks, Rick Stephens, Buddy & Vera Winchester, Susan Wilderman & Kaye Wright. Also special thanks to Rocky Mountain college students - Ken & Emily for donating their spring breaks. In the office & the show management - Mark Harrell, David Pardue, Julie Pardue, Kathy Avolt, Bob Heubner, Chris Cento, Morgan Cento & of course the show chairs - Doug Landon & Lana Brooks. Special thanks to Bob Speck (father of Michelle Speck) for all of his help...Bob did anything asked & did it with a smile! Also thanks to Stephanie Bonstell & Linda Rowland for manning the March To The Arch 'Boutique'!

On Friday night, we also celebrated those that have conquered cancer & showed who the real champions are in the Survivor classes. Michael Colvin, who has judged & shown at the March To The Arch several times before, could not be here this year, but again donated a dozen long-stemmed roses in memory of his mother Rachel, to the winners. (Michael was in San Antonio with his clients picking up numerous Honor Roll titles!) Winning the halter class was Linda Rowland who showed The Brown Bandit, owned by Sherri Hennis. Linda is a two-time survivor. In the pleasure class, Lisa Ramsey & My Invitation Is Dun captured the roses. Also celebrated in these classes were Roger Horvath, Doug Whitacre, Paul Mareschal, Candy Edgerton, Joe Mathews, Laura Harrison & Jill Ellsworth.

Of course, Friday night's Ladies Pleasure is always one of the highlights of the show. This year's crop of 'Ladies' did not disappoint. The riders included Sha-na-na (Cooper Smith), Cleopatra (John Scott), Holly - Miss March & Playmate of the Year (Craig Miller), Charity Case (Daryl Madden - Daryl was also the earlier Vanna White), Party-N-Patty (Ken Murray - one of the Rocky Mountain College students), Pinky No Wena (Scott Mitchell), Hootchie Mamma (Andy Staton), Toilett Paper (Chris Russell), Marilyn Wayneroe (Wayne Hembry), Bubbles (Todd Grant), TT Rhea (Dr Ray Murphy) & the defending champion - Jason Smith who rode Sweet Cheeks! The quality of the ladies gets better each year & the outfits are amazing. To make the 2010 show even better - there is already a $500 prize being donated to the Lady with the best costume! Start planning now!!! We did not get to read ONE of the ladies entire entry form, but wanted to share it here - She wrote - "My favorite TV show is 'Sponge Bob Square Pants' because of the stimulating intellect! Her next career move is 'The United States President...after all, anyone can do it!' We will let you decide which lady this was written by!

This year's show totaled exactly 5000 entries in all divisions. Considering today's economy & the AQHA Convention happening the same weekend, we are honored that each & every one of you chose to celebrate & show at the 2009 March To The Arch show. We hope you will mark your calendars for the 2010 show & come and have even more fun!

All entries are considered un-official until approved by AQHA.
